Part III.
 It is not necessary for applicant to provide a separate record of the substance of the interview, since the interview directly resulted in the allowance of the application. The examiner will provide a written summary of the substance of the interview in the Notice of Allowability. It is not necessary for applicant to provide a separate record of the substance of the interview, since the interview did not result in resolution of all issues. A brief summary by the examiner appears in Part II above.

Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was discussed: Examiner discussed with Applicant's Representative that the application is in condition for allowance, except for a 101 issue with independent claim 15, as well as the dependent claims. Applicant's Representative agreed to amend the claim to include a processor and a memory, so that the claim(s) will recite physical articles, and will therefore be statutory under 35 U.S.C. 101.
